

Information for Donors

Purpose, scope, and legal basis for the processing of personal data

Personal data will be processed for the following purposes and to the following extent:

- a) To execute the donation agreement: we ask you to complete the form and provide your name and the name of your organization so that we know who we are entering into the agreement with. The agreement is made with the taxpayer delivering goods or providing services that will be used for purposes related to assisting flood victims. The legal basis is the necessity to perform the agreement.
- b) For the legitimate interest of RARS in maintaining mutual professional contacts, we ask you to also provide the contact details of the donation recipient.
- c) For the execution of logistical services: we request the contact details of the transportation company.
- d) To fulfill RARS's legal obligations (e.g., under accounting regulations), we process transaction-related information, such as your name, the donation amount, account number, and address in the case of a bank transfer. The legal basis is the necessity to comply with legal obligations imposed on the administrator.
- e) For establishing, pursuing, or defending claims, which constitutes a legitimate interest of RARS.
- f) Data may also be processed for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority entrusted to RARS, as stipulated by the Public Information Access Act.

Data retention period

Personal data that we receive from you will be retained for the following periods:

- a) Data processed for the purpose of executing the agreement – until the expiration of claims (6 years from the date of the donation).
- b) Data processed for the purpose of fulfilling legal obligations – for the period prescribed by the Accounting Act (6 years from the date of the donation).

Recipients of personal data

Personal data that we receive from you will not be disclosed to other recipients or categories of recipients, except in cases provided for by applicable law, including cases of disclosure to authorized entities or public authorities upon their request. After their use, the data will be processed for archival purposes based on the Act of July 14, 1983, on the National Archival Resource and Archives.

Transfer of personal data to a third country or international organization

Personal data may be transferred to international organizations, including the European Commission.

Information on automated decision-making

Your personal data will not be processed in an automated manner, meaning that decisions regarding your case are not made using an IT system.

We do not perform profiling based on your personal data, which means there is no automatic assessment of certain personal factors that concern you.

Obligation to provide data and consequences of failure to provide data

Providing personal data is voluntary. If you do not provide your data, this may result in the following consequences:

- a) We will not be able to execute the donation agreement, including confirming the donation;
- b) It may hinder the processing of complaints;
- c) It may hinder the establishment, pursuit, or defense of claims.
